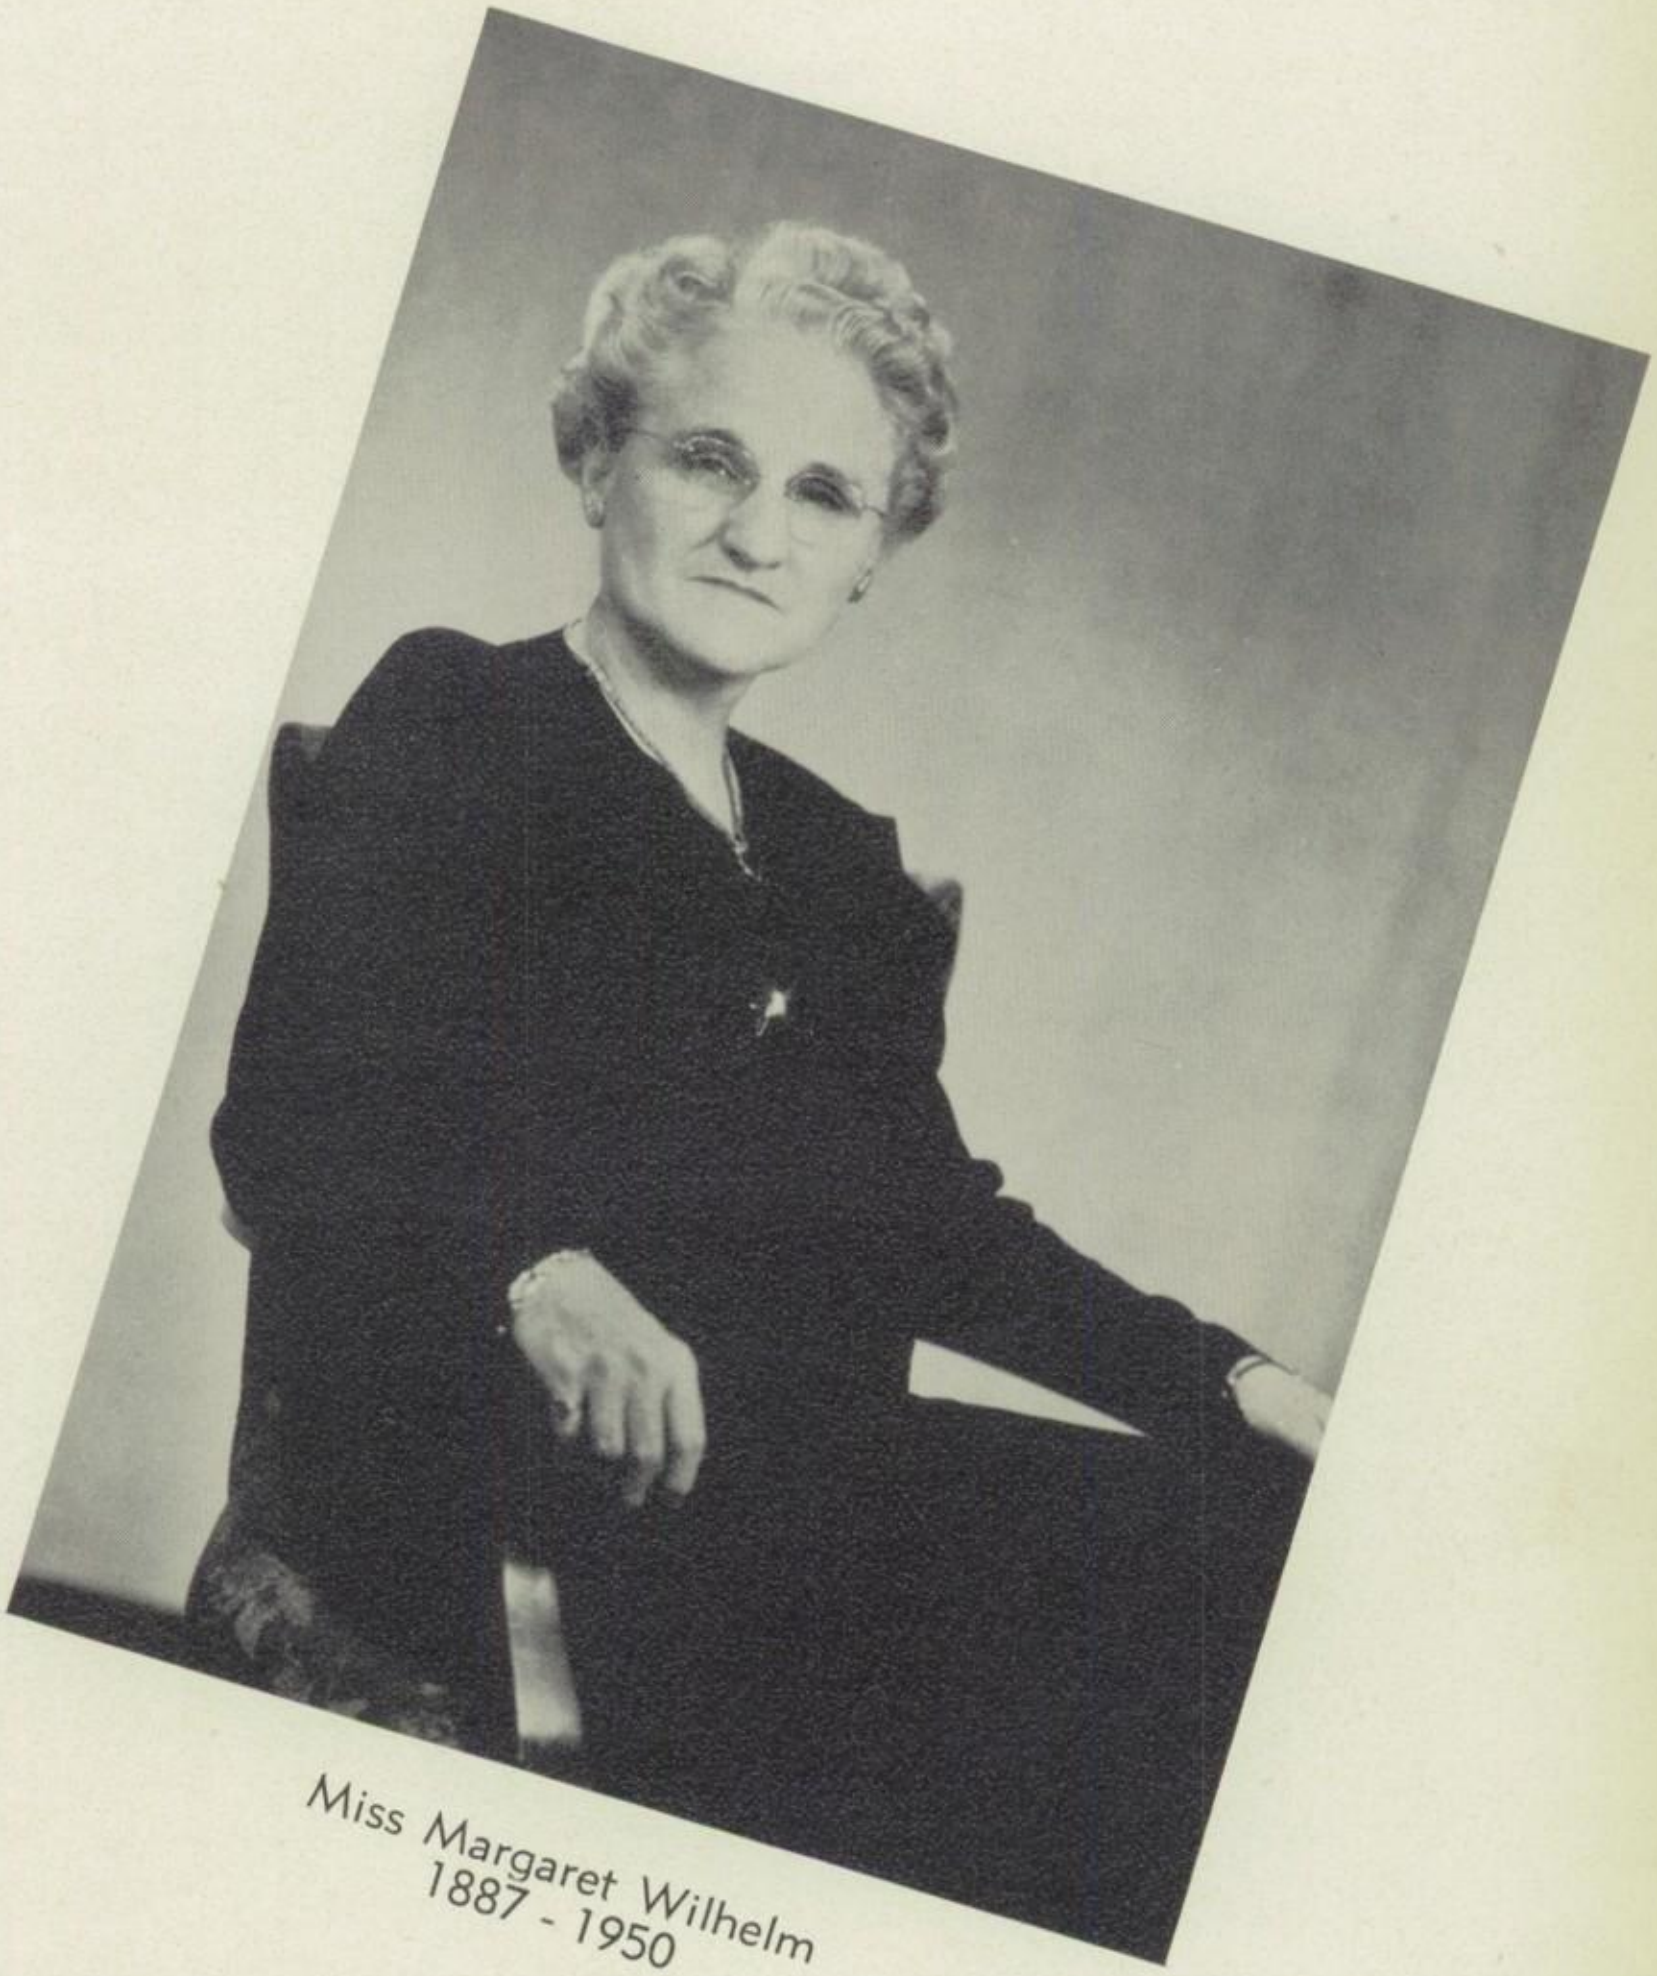
Dedication

This book is dedicated to the late Miss Margaret Wilhelm as a lasting memorial to her faith and trust in the youth of our community.

Associated with the Defiance Public Schools for thirty-eight years, her interest in the future citizens of Defiance continued after retirement as she became the first hostess of the Skylark Youth Center. In this capacity, she was not only director of the club but a mother and advisor to the club's many members as well. Miss Wilhelm filled this position for five years until her death in 1950.

Her spirit most certainly lives on in the acts of those on whom she impressed her most gracious personality.



Miss Margaret Wilhelm

This rollicking comedy in three acts deals with a problem that seems to be facing a lot of people today.

The Taylors were a happy, normal family living in a nice quiet small town. Then one day they received a call from a popular quiz program called "Riddle Me Riches." Surprisingly enough they won the jackpot. Then the excitement begins.

La dee dah . . . Get out of here with that boom, boom, boom.

Varsity Football

Bob Cowan, former member of the Cleveland Browns and Baltimore Colts, was the head football coach during the 1950 season. Because only five of the seven lettermen that were back were able to play (one was injured and the other didn't come out) many underclassmen gained valuable experience that will be of great help in future years. The Bulldogs ended the season with a two win and seven loss record, both wins in league competition.

After the season was over, guard Willard Froelich was elected captain by the members of the team.

Junior High Football

Junior High football, under coaches Lester Riggle and Henry Wiseman, had a very good year, winning four games while losing only one. They won their last three games from Bryan (20-0), Wauseon (19-12), and Montpelier (26-7).

Reserve Basketball

Although the Reserves ended the season with a record of four wins and ten defeats, they gained much valuable experience that can be acquired only by playing games. They were coached by Mr. Robert Cowan. They were handicapped because the squad changed much due to players moving up to the Varsity and some of the Freshmen moving up to the Reserves.

Defiance, after many years, again has a baseball team. Mr. Hampshire had the job of building a team out of boys who had very little experience in playing baseball. The experience they gained promises to put baseball on a par with the other major sports in years to come.

The members of the team elected Jack Lehman honorary captain for the year.

Carter Burney, who was head football coach in 1949, coached Defiance's first golf team in many years. They didn't have many matches because golf isn't in the sports program in all the schools around Defiance. Defiance beat Montpelier 12 to 2, but lost to Napoleon 21½ to 4½. At theLeague meet Defiance came in second with Napoleon coming in first, Montpelier third, and Bryan fourth.
